3) Conditions for Sanction / Renewal of Affiliation

1. Every institution seeking grant, continuance, extension, or renewal of affiliation shall submit its application in the prescribed form within the stipulated time limit, duly signed by the competent authority of the institution and accompanied by all documents, declarations, undertakings, and enclosures required by the Council.
2. No application shall be entertained unless the institution has remitted the prescribed affiliation fee, inspection fee, scrutiny fee, and all other applicable charges in full and has furnished satisfactory proof of such remittance in the manner prescribed.
3. The institution shall strictly comply with all infrastructure, land, building, laboratory, library, equipment, safety, sanitation, clinical, workshop, hostel, and other physical facility norms, wherever applicable, as may be prescribed by the Council or by any other competent statutory authority.
4. The institution shall maintain the requisite number of qualified teaching staff, technical staff, administrative personnel, supporting staff, and supervisory personnel in accordance with the staffing pattern, qualifications, and service conditions prescribed under the applicable norms.

5. The application shall be accompanied by valid No Objection Certificate, essentiality certificate, recognition, consent of affiliation, permission, approval, or any other authorization required from the State Government, Central Government, university, board, commission, council, or any competent statutory authority, as the case may be.
6. The institution shall disclose truthfully and fully all particulars relating to ownership, management, governing body, trust, society, company, land title, lease, infrastructure, sanctioned intake, courses conducted, faculty position, admissions, and prior approvals, and any concealment, suppression, or misrepresentation of material facts shall render the application liable to rejection or withdrawal.
7. All outstanding dues payable to the Council, including affiliation fee, inspection fee, penalty, late fee, re-inspection fee, or any other lawful charge, shall be cleared in full before the application is taken up for scrutiny, inspection, or consideration.
8. The institution shall permit inspection, re-inspection, surprise inspection, verification, physical assessment, or document scrutiny by any officer, committee, expert body, or representative duly authorized by the Council, and shall extend full cooperation by producing records, registers, accounts, approvals, staff details, and all other relevant material whenever called upon to do so.
9. Mere submission of an application or payment of fees shall not confer any vested right, equitable claim, or legitimate expectation upon the institution for grant or renewal of affiliation, and the Council shall be at liberty to examine each case on its own merits in accordance with law and applicable policy.
10. The Council shall have the authority to call for any clarification, explanation, additional document, compliance report, affidavit, undertaking, or rectification of deficiency, and the institution shall furnish the same within the time specified, failing which the matter may be proceeded with ex parte or rejected.

11. Incomplete applications, defective applications, belated submissions, or applications unsupported by mandatory approvals or essential records shall be liable to be summarily rejected without assigning any separate reason and without any claim for refund, adjustment, or carry forward of fees.
12. The grant or renewal of affiliation shall at all times remain subject to continued compliance with the statutes, rules, regulations, ordinances, directions, standards, inspection observations, and policy decisions issued by the Council and other competent authorities from time to time.
13. Where any deficiency, irregularity, violation, shortcoming, or non-compliance is noticed, the Council may, without prejudice to any other action available in law, defer consideration of the application, impose conditions, direct rectification, order re-inspection, suspend processing, or decline to grant or renew affiliation.
14. The institution shall be solely responsible for adherence to all laws relating to admissions, reservation, service conditions, fire safety, building safety, public health, bio-medical waste management, anti-ragging, accessibility, and such other statutory obligations as may be applicable to its courses or establishment.
15. The prescribed fee structure, conditions, procedural requirements, and allied charges contained herein shall be subject to amendment, modification, enhancement, withdrawal, or substitution by the Competent Authority from time to time, and every institution shall remain bound by such revised provisions with immediate effect unless otherwise ordered.

4) Mode of Payment

All fees shall be deposited exclusively through Demand Draft / RTGS / Online Treasury in favour of "Lal Bahadur Shastri Health Sciences and Technical Council, Lucknow", payable at Lucknow.

Note:

- Application fee and processing/scrutiny fee are strictly non-refundable.
- Inspection scheduling will be initiated only after the successful scrutiny of the application and clearance of the processing fee.
